

cc: Christi Sheewman

Free Conference Corp.

Director of Legal & Finance

Jeff Holoubek

/s/ Jeff Holoubek

Sincerely,

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned.

Applications, including free conferencing services.

achieve our shared goals of curtailing real abuses without eliminating valuable services and to pay charges owed. Finally, we discussed working to develop potential solutions that would occur in today's marketplace by carriers who employ "self-help" tactics by simply refusing benefits of services such as free conferencing services. We also discussed the unlawful behavior inter-carrier compensation regime while preserving the pro-consumer and pro-competitive

In the meeting we discussed the need to eliminate current abuses occurring within the existing discusses issues related to the above-referenced dockets.

Christi Sheewman, Legal Advisor for Wireline and Universal Service to Commissioner Baker, to Stirewalt of Mary Diamond Strategies, LLC and Scott Swier of Swier Law Office, LLC met with Conference Corporation, Megan Delany of Delany Advisory Group, LLC, Mary Diamond and On September 15, 2010, David Erickson, Joshua Lowenthal, and the undersigned of Free

Dear Ms. Dorch:

CC Document No. 01-92

Document No. 07-135, Developing a Unified Intercarrier Compensation Regime,

RE: Establishing Just and Reasonable Rates for Local Exchange Carriers, WC

Washington, D.C. 20554

445 12th Street, S.W.

Federal Communications Commission

Secretary

Mrs. Marlene H. Dorch

September 17, 2010